

OPERATING RULES FOR THE SHARED LAUNDRY ROOM

A student wishing to use the laundry and drying service shall collect the required number of tokens, the appropriate amount of detergent (gel capsules), and the laundry room key from the reception desk. The receptionist will charge the service to the student's account for subsequent billing. Upon completion of the washing or drying cycle, the student is required to return the laundry room key to the reception desk without delay. Late return or loss of the key will be charged in accordance with the current price list.

Every student using the shared laundry room is required to:

1. Conduct themselves in a manner that does not endanger their own health or life, or that of others.
2. Comply with all occupational health and safety regulations and fire safety regulations.
3. Operate the washing machine and other equipment only in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.
4. Immediately report any defects in the washing machine or electrical equipment (damaged power cord, switch, socket, etc.), as well as any other defects in the laundry room that could endanger the safety or health of users.
5. If any malfunction of the washing machine is observed (sparking, electric shock hazard, irregular operation, excessive noise, etc.), immediately stop using the machine and report the defect to the dormitory operations staff.
6. Familiarize themselves with the principles of first aid in the event of an electrical shock accident.
7. Request clarification from the operations staff if any part of the operating instructions or use of the equipment is unclear.

Is prohibited to:

- interfere with or modify the washing machine mechanism or any of its electrical components;
- leave the accommodation premises during the washing or drying cycle;
- use flammable substances in the laundry room;
- use the laundry room without having been familiarized with the operating instructions and these operating rules.

Failure to comply with these operating rules may be considered a breach of a resident student's obligations and may be addressed in accordance with the BUT Dormitory Regulation

In Brno 3. 9. 2026

Zdeňka Juřinová
Head of Dormitory Operations

